

COPYRIGHT AND LICENSING

PLEASE READ THIS IMPORTANT INFORMATION BEFORE PLANNING YOUR PERFORMANCE

Under the Copyrights, Designs and Patents Act (1988), it is a legal requirement for schools to comply with copyright law, and ensure they hold the correct licences for performing musicals. As experienced teachers ourselves, we understand that time restraints and lack of advice can sometimes mean this aspect of your production is not dealt with, or that the details and requirements are not fully understood. We therefore try to make the process of licensing your performances as simple as possible.

General Guidelines

You are free to use any of our material for all classroom teaching purposes and for performances within school to only pupils and staff. However, if our musicals are to be performed to an audience other than pupils and staff from your school (eg. parents or other people from the wider community) then a performance licence must be obtained directly from Edgy Productions.

Performance of Musicals

The performance of works involving drama, movement, narrative or spoken dialogue requires a title and date specific licence from the copyright holder/publisher – in this case Edgy Productions. The requirement for a licence is irrespective of admission charges. Your PRS, PPL, CCLA or any equivalent local authority-issued licences do not cover you for such performances. A performance licence from us will permit the holder to do the following:

- Perform a musical up to 5 times in one academic year, to a public audience, within your school.*
 - Reproduce song lyrics on paper or for display on interactive whiteboards or similar screens.
 - Photocopy the script and score for the cast to learn lines, and musicians to play the songs.
- * If you are performing outside of your school premises, for example in a local theatre, please contact us as further conditions apply. For more information, visit www.edgyproductions.com/licences

Audio and Video Recordings

If you wish to make an audio or video recording of the performance of any of our musicals, you will need an additional recording and duplication licence from Edgy Productions. This will also allow you to make and sell copies of your recordings if you wish to do so. We no longer request that you pay a commission to us on the money you raise from the sale of recordings.

File Sharing

You are not permitted to share any of our copyrighted material, either in printed form, on disc or in digital file format, with anyone who is not a pupil or teacher within your school or organisation. We will take immediate action should an incident of illegal file-sharing be reported or discovered.

You can, of course, phone or email us for advice – we are more than happy to discuss all your licensing needs.

PERFORMANCE LICENCE APPLICATION FORM

For any performance of any part of ‘Santa’s On Strike’ to an audience other than staff and children (eg. to parents), a valid performance licence from Edgy Productions must be held. Please note, your PRS, MCPS, CCLI or similar local authority-issued licence does not cover you for this. Unless you purchased an instant performance licence and/or a recording & duplication licence when you bought this production pack, please ensure you complete and return this form at least 28 days before your first performance:

- by post – Edgy Productions, 8 Roman Way, Market Harborough, Leicestershire LE16 7PQ
- by FAX – 0845 833 33 49
- by email – info@edgyproductions.com

The performance licence will permit the holder to do the following:

- Perform a musical up to 5 times in one academic year, to a public audience, within your school.*
- Reproduce song lyrics on paper or for display on interactive whiteboards or similar screens.
- Photocopy the script and score for the cast to learn lines, and musicians to play the songs.

Plot Summary

It’s Christmas Eve at the North Pole, and frantic preparations are under way to get Santa ready for his annual ‘evening out’ (song – ‘Ready For Christmas Day’). However, all is not as it should be. We hear from the elves, Eric, Elsie, Edgar, Edna, Esmée and Elmer, that Santa has gone on strike! Mrs Santa thinks this may be a passing problem due to his age, but Santa claims he has good reason for refusing to deliver presents to the children of the world. He has been watching repeats of ‘Supernanny’ on TV and can’t believe the behaviour he has witnessed (song – ‘Santa’s On Strike’). He thinks children no longer deserve a visit from him on Christmas Eve, and he won’t be convinced otherwise.

Desperate to save Christmas, the Elves, Mrs Santa and Rudolf plead with him to change his mind, but Santa digs his heels in! Then the elves hit on a plan which might convince him that children are not like those he’s seen on TV, but that they can be really kind and giving, caring and sharing. Using the World-Wide-View-Satellite-Plasma-Screen-and-handset they tune in to the Wiseman family who are preparing for Christmas. They, and the audience, witness the comically frantic time families can have leading up to the big day, and see the children more than doing their bit to ease the pressure. (song – ‘Pitching In, Helping Out’)

Next we tune into the Shepherd family. Despite being settled into a Christmas Eve game of cards (which Dad is a little too eager to win!) the children are keen to make sure all the animals – pets, birds and even Santa’s reindeer – are comfortable, catered-for and well looked-after. (song – ‘Puppies Are Not Just For Christmas’)

The Elves then show Santa the King family. We see how the children are happy to sacrifice a cosy Christmas Eve watching DVDs in order to join others, outside in the cold, carol singing to raise money for the old folks’ home. They also enjoy dragging their protesting parents outside for a sing-along too! (song – ‘Lots Of Fa-la-la’)

In a short optional scene Santa is shown that children haven’t forgotten the true meaning of Christmas. We tune in to a nativity tableau, where, dressed as the traditional characters, a group of children perform a traditional Christmas song (‘Silent Night’)

If all this hasn’t yet softened Santa’s heart, then the final visit to the Starr family is bound to make him see that children can embrace the true spirit of Christmas. The Starr children feel sorry for their old neighbour, Mr Lewis, and take him round some Christmas cake (and a bottle of Dad’s wine!), with the intention of keeping him company for a short while. Moved by his loneliness they go the whole hog and invite him to their house for Christmas! (song – ‘Give A Little Time’)

Quite predictably this does the trick, and as Santa sobs into his beard he instructs the elves to load up the sleigh. In a rousing finale he admits that children are still worthy of a wonderful Christmas, and he will do his utmost to see they get it! (song – ‘Blast Off!’)

For those who may have forgotten, this is a sensitive and witty reminder (and celebration) of all that is still good about Christmas.....and children!

CHARACTERS

Note – if you have a smaller cast, because most characters only appear in one scene, multiple parts can be played by a single child. Alternatively, for extra-large cast numbers, many speaking parts have enough lines to be divided between any extra characters you want to create.

(32 Speaking parts in order of appearance)

Eric

Elsie

Edgar

Edna

Esmée

Elmer

Santa’s loyal Elf helpers, intent on giving every good boy and girl a Christmas to remember!

Mrs Santa – the patient and long-suffering wife of.....

Santa – not so much ‘Ho! Ho! Ho!’ as ‘No! No! No!’

Rudolf – desperate for a Christmas Eve gallop.

The Wiseman Family; Dan, Sally, Grandma, Grandpa, Mum, Dad
– so much to do, so little time!

The Shepherd Family; Hannah, Jack, Mum, Dad – dedicated to their pets!

The King Family; Tim, Katie, Miss Evans, Sam, Mum, Dad
– up for a sing song

The Starr Family; Abi, Rob, Grandma, Grandpa, Mum, Dad, Mr Lewis
– eager to start dinner

Note about ‘family’ characters

- Names of children can be changed to those of the actors playing them.
- For a smaller cast, with slight changes to the script the same family can be depicted in all four scenes.
- If you want to portray less traditional family set ups, the script can again be adapted to allow for this. Characters can easily be added or omitted to suit your requirements.

(Ensemble Characters, if you have the numbers, for featured songs and choreography)

Extra Elves and Reindeer – centre stage for the songs ‘Ready For Christmas Day’, ‘Santa’s On Strike’ and ‘It’s Blast Off For Santa’s Sleigh!’

Domestic ‘Jobbers’ – centre stage for the song ‘Pitching In, Helping Out’

Animal Lovers – centre stage for the song ‘Puppies Are Not Just For Christmas’

Carol Singers – centre stage for the song ‘Lots Of Fa-La-La’

Nativity Characters – for optional scene 5.

Scene 1

(To intro music (track 9) the whole cast enters for the opening song. The performance area is divided into two distinct sections. One section, a slightly smaller stage to the right of a larger main stage, is decorated to represent Santa’s North Pole grotto. The centrepiece of this section is an ornate sleigh, currently empty and unoccupied. Mrs Santa sits next to it in a rocking chair, knitting. The reindeer stand behind her and behind the sleigh in a ‘penned-off’ section and the elves gather around a workbench on the floor in front of this stage – see staging suggestions scenery & furniture/costumes. The rest of the cast members stand on and in front of the main stage which is decorated as a family living room at Christmas – again see staging suggestions/scenery & furniture. When all are in position, fade the intro music and begin the opening song.)

Song Ready For Christmas Day (track 1 & 10, lyrics p16) (Mrs Santa, Elves and Reindeer supported by whole cast)

(To intro music (track 11) Mrs Santa and all the elves exit behind the ‘Grotto’ stage. Only Rudolf and the other reindeer remain in position, looking impatient. The rest of the cast sits in the off-stage seating area. Fade the intro music when all are settled. Eric the elf enters the Grotto through the doorway, and paces around looking very anxious.)

Eric Oh dear, oh dear! It’s a disaster! Elsie! Elsie!

(Elsie the elf comes through the doorway holding a cup of tea.)

Elsie For goodness’ sake Eric, we’re having our tea break! What is it?

(Eric whispers into Elsie’s ear. She reacts with a shocked gasp.)

Elsie But it’s Christmas Eve! Edgar! Edgar!

(Edgar the elf comes through the doorway holding a copy of the Racing Post.)

Edgar What is it Elsie? I’m missing Reindeer Grand National on the TV!

(Elsie whispers into Edgar’s ear. He reacts with a shocked gasp.)

Edgar But it’s Christmas Eve! Edna! Edna!

(Edna the elf comes through the doorway yawning.)

Edna Thanks a lot, Edgar! I was having forty winks. What’s up?

(Edgar whispers into Edna’s ear. She reacts with a shocked gasp.)

Edna But it’s Christmas Eve! Esmée! Esmée!

(Esmée the elf comes through the doorway eating a chocolate biscuit.)

Esmée I’m trying to eat a penguin back here! (The elves gasp!) No, not a real penguin! They live at the south pole! It’s a biscuit! So Esmée, what’s wrong?

(Edna whispers into Esmée’s ear. Esmée reacts with a shocked gasp.)

Esmée But it’s Christmas Eve! Elmer! Elmer!

(Elmer the elf comes through the doorway reading a manual.)

Elmer It clearly states in this union handbook that elves shall have a ten minute break every three hours, uninterrupted! This better be important or I’m calling them!

(Esmée whispers into Elmer’s ear. Elmer looks confused.)

Elmer But he’s the boss! And it’s Christmas Eve! Surely not!

All elves IT’S TRUE – SANTA’S ON STRIKE!

(Mrs Santa enters through the doorway, sits on her rocking chair and starts knitting.)

Mrs Santa I don’t know what’s wrong with him. Men do start acting strangely when they’re getting old!

(Santa enters with a placard reading “Santa’s On Strike!” He sits in his sleigh.)

Santa It’s got nothing to do with getting old. It’s modern children! They’re horrible! They certainly don’t deserve Christmas presents!

Mrs Santa But you’re Santa Claus!

Edna You’re every child’s best friend.

Santa Not anymore! I’ve been watching re-runs of ‘Supernanny’ and I couldn’t believe my eyes! Every house is full of horrible little blighters! I tell you, I am definitely.....ON STRIKE!

(The whole cast stands to sing. If you have any extra elves and reindeer they can take a prominent position in front of the stage.)

Song Santa's On Strike (track 2 & 12, lyrics p17) (Santa, supported by whole cast)

(As intro music (track 13) plays the cast sits down. Santa sits in his sleigh, Mrs Santa sits in her rocking chair and knits, while the elves gather round their workbench.)

Scene 2

Elmer Well, I support your decision to strike, even though you’re ‘management’. You have the right, through peaceful protest, to.....

All Oh be quiet, Elmer!

Mrs Santa Look, everybody knows you can’t believe everything you see on TV.

Edgar And we’ve had some lovely letters this year from mums and dads, telling us how good their children are.

Santa They’re lying. Children are horrible!

(The elves huddle together.)

Esmée How do we show him that children really are good?

Elsie And that they’re kind and giving, caring and sharing?

Eric I’ve got it! Now, where’s the remote control for the World-Wide-View Satellite Plasma Screen?

Mrs Santa Oh, I’m sitting on it, dear! I’m hiding it so his lordship can’t watch any more TV. Here.

(Eric fetches the remote control from her. He then takes a letter from inside his tunic.)

Eric This letter’s from a mum and dad telling us what wonderful children they have. We’ll use the World-Wide-View Satellite to zoom in on them at home and watch them on the big screen. Right, what address do I need to enter.....

(He reads the letter closely then begins tapping the keys on the remote control.)

Santa Ha! It’ll just be all shouting and tantrums.

Mrs Santa Let’s just watch it, shall we?

(Eric points the remote control at the main stage, the ‘screen’, tapping more keys. We hear the Tuning-in sound effect (track 14). Eric tuts in frustration until the sound stops.)

Eric There! Everybody, may I introduce to you.....the Wiseman family!

(The action moves to the main central stage, set up as a family living room – see staging suggestions. Dad enters and lies on a settee reading a newspaper. Two children, Sally and Dan, enter and sit on beanbags. They start playing with handheld computer games. A grandmother and grandfather enter and sit in armchairs to watch TV.)

Grandma Ahhh, Heartbeat. I love this programme. (She sings the theme tune.)

Grandpa Me too. (noticing the children) Sally, Daniel, what are you doing?

Dan We’re playing ‘Zombie Doom’ Grandpa.

Sally I’m giving Dan a real thrashing!

Santa (from the other stage) What did I tell you?

Mrs Santa Shhhh!

Grandma Zombie Doom? It sounds a bit gruesome!

Grandpa Give me a good old-fashioned crossword any day.

Mum (from off-stage) Will you please help me with the dishes, love?

Dad Coming.

(Dad carries on reading the paper. Mum enters looking a little worn out, and a little annoyed. She throws a pair of yellow rubber gloves at him.)

Mum Oi! The sink’s piled high with dishes, there’s the Christmas cake to decorate and then all the vacuuming to do.

Dad Just give me five minutes. I’ve only just got in from a hard day myself.

Grandma (to mum) A cup of cocoa would be nice, love

Grandpa And for me, if it’s not too much trouble.

Mum (exasperated) Ooooooh!

(Mum exits. The children look at each other, put down their games and go after her. They return, each holding one of her arms. Dan moves Dad’s legs off the settee and the children sit Mum down next to him. Sally puts a bean bag under her feet.)

Dan Right! Dad, give me those gloves. You’ve done lots of overtime this week just to pay for our lovely Christmas, so you just read your paper.

Sally Grandma and Grandpa, we’ll bring you your cocoa. And Mum, you sit there and don’t move until bedtime. This is your Christmas too and you deserve some time off.

Dan So we’ll take care of the washing up and the vacuuming. We’ll even decorate the cake!

Sally You all relax. That’s an order!

(The children exit.)

Dad They’re a couple of crackers, aren’t they?

Mum Indeed they are – a couple of Christmas crackers!

(Grandpa picks up the game consoles, examining them with confusion, yet interest.)

Grandpa Fancy a game of Zombie Doom while we wait for our cocoa?

Grandma Go on then!

(To intro music (track 15) the old couple play and the whole cast stands to sing the next song. The ‘domestic jobbers’ take a prominent position in front of the stage, armed with dusters, brooms, rubber gloves, aprons etc. Fade the intro music when all are ready.)

Song Pitching In, Helping Out (track 3 & 16, lyrics p18)

(Whole cast)

(As intro music (track 17) plays again, the cast sits down and, if possible, all the furniture on the ‘living room’ stage is slightly rearranged to represent another family’s house. If this is unmanageable perhaps a different picture could be hung on the back wall, or different throws could be put over the furniture and different stockings on the fireplace etc.

For best effect make all of these changes. Note. If you only have a small cast the family need not be a different one. Change the script accordingly to show that we will again be watching the Wiseman family, and leave the furniture. When any rearranging has been done fade the music.)

Scene 3

Esmée Surely those two deserve a visit from you tonight, Boss?

Santa I’m not travelling round the world for just two good children.

Rudolf Oh great! So the reindeer get no exercise? Old Prancer here, his joints are seizing up and Blitzen’s worried about getting fat. You must take us out!

Elmer You tell ’em Rudolf! Rights for Reindeer!

All Oh be quiet, Elmer!

Rudolf But we’ve been looking forward to a gallop out.

Santa Ok, ok. I’ll take you out for a gallop later.....without the sleigh though.

Mrs Santa Don’t worry, Rudolf. He might be a grumpy so-and-so, but he does care about his reindeer. He won’t let you go without your exercise.

Elsie Oooh! That gives me an idea. Eric, give me the remote control. Everyone look at the screen again. (She takes a letter from inside her tunic and reads.) Now, what was the address?

(Elsie taps the buttons on the handset, pointing it at the ‘screen’. We hear the Tuning-in sound effect again (track 18). She tuts in frustration until the sound stops.)

Elsie There! Everybody, this is the house of the Shepherd family!

(The action moves again to the ‘living room’ stage. Mum, Dad and two children, Jack and Hannah, are kneeling round the coffee table, wearing dressing gowns and playing cards.)

Dad Ha! What a hand! I reckon I’m going to win my first ever game of Rummy. Come on, Hannah, your turn.

Hannah Actually Dad, can we wait a minute. There’s something I really need to do first.

(She puts down her cards and exits. Jack puts his cards down and stands up.)

Jack And I really need to pop out too. (exiting) Dad, don’t touch my cards.

Dad Well I hope they hurry back. I’ve got a great hand!

(As Dad is about to sneak a look at their cards, the children return and kneel down.)

Mum Have you two been raiding the mince-pie tin?

Hannah No. It’s cold out so I went to put some more hay in Floss’s hutch.

Jack And I went to fill the bird feeders with nuts. I don’t want them to go hungry.

Dad Yes, yes. You’re both very kind children, but we’re in the middle of a game. Come on Hannah, it’s your.....

Hannah Ooh! Forgot something!

Jack Back in a minute!!

(The children put their cards down and rush out again. Dad looks frustrated!)

Hannah and Jack (from off-stage) Mum! Have we got any carrots?

Mum (shouting back) In the middle cupboard, near the cereal.

Dad Carrots? Surely they can’t be hungry!

(The children come back in and place a carrot each by the fireplace.)

Jack There. Carrots for Santa’s reindeer.

Hannah They’ll need lots of energy tonight, and to be able to see in the dark.

Dad Well that’s lovely. Now can we please get on? Hannah, it’s your turn.

(As Hannah is about to play we hear a dog barking (track 19). The children look up.)

Dad It’s only Bob. Just ignore him.

Hannah We can’t ignore him.

Jack You bought him for us last Christmas, Dad. He’s part of the family now.

Hannah Mum, can we take him for a walk. I think he wants to go out.

Dad But what about our game? I only need two more cards to win!

Mum Ok, but I’ll I go with you? Once round the park though, that’s all. Come on, get dressed. You know what, I’m so proud of you two for the way you care for your animals.

(Mum, Jack and Hannah exit, leaving Dad in shock. He collects the cards up, shuffles them, and then shouts after his wife and children...)

Dad Well, will somebody at least come back and tell me how to play Patience!

(To intro music (track 20) Dad deals himself some cards and the cast stands to sing the next song. The ‘animal lovers’ take a prominent position in front of the stage, holding an assortment of cuddly toy pets. Fade the intro music when all are ready.)

Song Puppies Are Not Just For Christmas

(Whole cast)

(track 4 & 21, lyrics p19)

(As intro music (track 22) plays again, the cast sits down. The furniture is rearranged to represent another family’s house, unless it’s the same family as scenes 2 & 3, then the music is faded.)

Scene 4

Mrs Santa There you see, they were lovely, caring children.

Santa I’m still not going. It’s cold out there and I don’t want to catch a chill.

Elmer That’s right comrade. For health and safety reasons you must not.....

All Oh be quiet, Elmer!

Edgar But Boss, you’ve got a good layer of (patting his tummy) insulation!

Rudolf If we fly quickly we won’t notice the cold. Come on! Let’s try and beat our ‘round-the-world’ record!

(Santa shakes his head, and points to the writing on his placard.)

Edna Right! Give me that remote control (She takes the handset from Elsie, and a letter from inside her tunic. She reads.) Ok, what was the address?

(She taps the handset, pointing it towards the ‘screen’. We hear the Tuning-in sound effect again (track 23). She tuts in frustration until the sound stops.)

Edna There! Everybody, this is the house of the King family!

(The action moves again to the ‘living room’ stage. Mum, Dad and two children, Tim and Katie, enter carrying duvets. They sit down and wrap themselves in the blankets.)

Mum This is the chilliest Christmas Eve I can remember.

Dad There’s nothing that could get me outside tonight.

Katie It’s great being wrapped up in duvets, watching Chitty-Chitty-Bang-Bang!

Tim There’s nowhere else I’d rather be. This is perfect.

(A group of carol singers gather in front of the stage. A doorbell (track 24) rings and the two children hurry to the front of the stage, and peer out as if looking out of a window.)

Mum Who’s that out there, ringing the doorbell on such a cold night?

Katie It’s Miss Evans, our teacher, and lots of parents and children. They’ve come carol singing! Cool!

Dad Your teacher! Invite her in or she’ll think we’ve taught you no manners!

(Katie mimes the opening of a door, and Miss Evans and a child, Sam, enter the room. Mum and Dad stand up, a little embarrassed.)

Miss Evans Hello everyone, merry Christmas. We thought you might like to join us this evening to sing a few carols. Lots of mums, dads and children are out there bringing festive cheer to the neighbourhood.

Sam (shaking a tin) And we’re raising money for Sunnydale Retirement Home.

Tim Oh, can we? Please Mum, please Dad. It’ll be fun!

Dad But it’s bitter out there!

Katie Dad, Great Auntie June’s in Sunnydale. We’d be raising money to help her.

Mum But I can’t remember the words to any carols.

Sam Well, just hum along or join in with the Fa-la-la bits!

Miss Evans Yes, just as long as you’re out there with us.

Dad What about Chitty-Chitty-Bang-Bang?

Katie and Tim Dad!

Dad Ok then! Let’s get dressed. I tell you, it’s a good job I’m wearing thermals!

(To intro music (track 25) the family put on coats and hats etc, then join the singers in a prominent position in front of the stage. Fade the intro music when all are ready.)

Song Lots Of Fa-La-La (track 5 & 26, lyrics p20) (Carol singers, supported by whole cast)

(As intro music (track 27) plays again, the cast sits down.)

NB – the next scene is an optional nativity scene. Whether you choose to include this or miss it out, the storyline will not be affected. It would be best to present the nativity tableau on the floor in front of the main stage to avoid having to remove the living room furniture.

Scene 5

Mrs Santa That icy mood of yours must be thawing out a little by now!

Elsie You’ve still got time if you leave now.

Esmée Shall we harness the reindeer?

Santa No!

Edgar Why not!

Santa Well, it’s not just children’s behaviour that bothers me. They’ve forgotten what the real meaning of Christmas is too. It’s not about me popping down their chimneys with presents.

Edgar Hmmm. I think I can help you there, Boss.

(He takes the handset from Edna, taps it and points it towards the ‘screen’. We hear the Tuning-in sound effect again (track 28). He tuts in frustration until the sound stops.)

Edgar There you are. These are the youngsters of (insert your school name) in their local church on Christmas Eve. They’ve not forgotten what Christmas is really about.

(The traditional Nativity characters enter and form a tableau in front of the stage.)

Song Silent Night (track 6 & 29, lyrics p21)

(Whole cast)

(As intro music (track 30) plays again, the Nativity characters exit.)

Scene 6

(The furniture is rearranged to represent another family’s house, unless it’s the same family as scenes 2, 3 & 4. A separate rocking-chair and stool are placed together in front of the stage. The intro music is faded. Santa is asleep.)

Eric So Boss, surely you can see that there are good children out there?

(Santa snores.)

Mrs Santa The lazy so and so wasn’t even watching! (shaking Santa) Wake up!

Elmer All workers, including management, are entitled to a sleep break.....

All Oh be quiet, Elmer!

Santa (waking) Eh? What? Where am I?

Elsie This is getting serious! Unless he leaves soon he’ll never make it in time.

Esmée Right, I’ve got a letter here that can’t fail. Edgar, give me that handset.

(She taps the handset, pointing it towards the ‘screen’. We hear the Tuning-in sound effect again (track 31). She tuts in frustration until the sound stops.)

Esmée Ok! To really prove that children are kind, giving, caring and sharing, I give you the Starr family!

(The action moves again to the ‘living room’ stage. Mum, Dad, Grandma, Grandpa and two children, Rob and Abi, enter wearing dressing gowns. They sit down)

Grandma I’m so happy you invited us to stay for the holidays.

Grandpa Me too. A family Christmas – how exciting!

Dad Just don’t be up 4.30 in the morning with the children to see if Santa’s been!

Mum I don’t mind if that’s what you want to do! It’s just nice having you here.

Dad You know, all this makes me feel really sorry for old Mr Lewis next door. His family hardly ever visit or invite him to stay.

Mum I know. He’s going to be on his own for Christmas Day. If I get time tomorrow I’ll pop round and make sure he’s OK.

(Unnoticed, the children sneak off the stage.)

Grandpa I’d hate it if I never saw my wonderful grandchildren. You two are so.....Robert? Abigail? Where are the children?

(The action freezes. Rob and Abi, who are carrying a covered plate and a carrier bag, are led along the front of the stage by old Mr Lewis.)

Mr Lewis What a nice surprise! I don’t get many visitors. Come in, come in.

(He sits in his rocking chair, Abi sits on the stool and Rob stands next to her.)

Rob We’ve brought you a piece of Christmas cake, Mr Lewis.

Abi And here’s a bottle of wine. Dad’s got loads so he won’t miss it!

Mr Lewis Oh! Thank you so much. They’re the first presents I’ve had this year!

Rob Will you be seeing your grandchildren this Christmas, Mr Lewis?

Mr Lewis No. Their mum and dad have taken them skiing. They go every year you know, so now they’re really good skiers! I’m so proud of them.

Abi So you’re all alone for Christmas, Mr Lewis?

Mr Lewis Oh, I’ll be fine. I’ve got the TV, and with my cake and wine I can have my own party! Now tell me, are you expecting a visit from Santa?

Rob Well, we hope so! And guess who else we’re expecting a visit from.

Mr Lewis Who?

Abi You Mr Lewis! You’re coming to join us for Christmas dinner. Mum and Dad were just saying how they’d like to see you, and we’ve plenty of food.

Rob And Grandma and Grandpa will enjoy having someone else to talk to about....well, you know....old things!

Mr Lewis Oh, that would be wonderful - thank you! What kind children you are. Santa will definitely be paying you a visit, I just know it!

Abi Let’s hope so! See you tomorrow Mr Lewis. Come on Rob, we’d better go and tell Mum to lay an extra place at the table!

(To the opening bars of the next song everyone stands.)

Song Give A Little Time (track 7 & 32, lyrics p22)

(Whole cast)

(As intro music (track 33) plays again, the cast sits down.)

Scene 7

(Everyone in the grotto dabs their eyes with a hanky. Mrs Santa dabs the reindeers’ eyes!)

Mrs Santa (sniffing) Oh you silly old fool! How can you think children don’t deserve Christmas presents? Did you see those two?

All Well? Did you see them?

Santa (blowing his nose loudly.) Yes, I saw them.

All And what do you think?

Santa Well, I’m wondering....(standing and throwing down his placard).....why are we still here?! Come on, load up this sleigh! WE’VE GOT PRESENTS TO DELIVER!

All Hurray!

(As intro music (track 34) quietly plays the elves frantically load up sacks with the boxes and put them into the sleigh. Mrs Santa leads Rudolf and the reindeer to the front of the sleigh, where they chomp at the bit and scrape their hooves in anticipation. When the sleigh is loaded, all stand round it. Fade the music.)

Rudolf (speaking in an airline pilot’s voice) This is it then team! No slip-ups. Conditions are favourable so I want a good clean take-off.

Reindeer Aye, aye!

Eric So, quick march!

Elsie We haven’t got a second to spare!

Edgar Look sharp!

Edna We’ve got to get him up in the air!

Esmée Jump to it!

Elmer Chocks away!

All IT’S BLAST OFF FOR SANTA’S SLEIGH! HURRAY

Santa HO! HO! HO! MERRY CHRISTMAS EVERYONE!

(As the opening bars to the last song are heard, the whole cast stands to sing.)

Song Blast Off! (track 8 & 35, lyrics p23)
(Whole cast)

THE END

Ready For Christmas Day

- Verse 1 It's a busy time for the North Pole Crew.
We work hard but there's so much to do!
Well, all these Christmas present lists need reading,
There are toys to make, the reindeer still need feeding!
The clock's tick-tocking and there's just no way
That we'll ever be ready for Christmas day!
- Verse 2 Mrs Santa's spent a whole month sitting
In the corner doing nowt but knitting!
'Cause we've been sent a hundred thousand letters
And they're all asking for woollen Christmas sweaters!
(Mrs Santa holds up a typically tasteless Christmas jumper!)
The clock's tick-tocking and there's just no way
That we'll ever be ready for Christmas day!
- Verse 3 We're all feeling so rushed off our feet.
We've got deadlines we can't hope to meet!
There's no-one here who really can remember
Such a busy 24th day of December!
The clock's tick-tocking and there's just no way
That we'll ever be ready for Christmas day!

Santa's On Strike

Verse 1

(Santa)

Well I’ve been watching my TV
So astonished at what I see!
Bad manners, lies and cheek,
The awful way that children speak!
‘Please’ and ‘thank you’ are never said!
It’s got my goat! I’m seeing red!
So everybody, on yer bike!
’Cause this Christmas time.....I’M ON STRIKE!

(Santa parades round holding his ‘I’m On Strike’ placard.)

Verse 2

(All)

Well having read the daily news,
Poor old Santa’s got the blues!
Another front page headline says,
“Horrid Little Tearaways!”
All you naughty girls and boys
Can just forget about new toys.
Every single little tyke,
Take a running jump.....HE’S ON STRIKE!

Verse 3

(Santa)

My festive cheer is wearing thin,
So tonight I’m staying in.
No more flying through the skies,
I’ll just sit and eat mince pies!

(All)

Is there nothing we can say
To stop you spoiling Christmas Day?
We’ll do anything you like,
Just change your mind.....

(Santa)

NO! I’M ON STRIKE!

(All)

HE’S ON STRIKE!

Pitching In, Helping Out

Chorus *Shoulder to shoulder with everyone,
Working together to get things done.
Well that’s what Christmas is all about,
Pitching in and helping out!*

Verse 1 When the sink’s full of pots and pans
And you’ve got a little time on your hands,
Grab a cloth, roll up your sleeves,
Give that Fairy Liquid a real good squeeze!
Now your mum has become
Relaxed – it’s one less job to do.
And your dad is so glad
As he gives the rubber gloves to you!

Chorus Shoulder to shoulder.....

Verse 2 When your guests are nearly here
And there’s still a great big mess to clear,
On your feet, don’t lounge about,
Go and get the vacuum cleaner out!
Plug it in and begin
To bring a sparkle to the place.
As you zoom round the room
Mum’s got a huge smile on her face!

Chorus Shoulder to shoulder.....

Verse 3 Too soon after Christmas day
Decorations need putting away.
Although it’s not much fun,
It’s one of those jobs that must be done.
But don’t get too upset
As you take down each paper chain.
Never fear, in a year
You’ll put them all back up again!

Chorus Shoulder to shoulder.....

Repeat *Well that’s what Christmas is all about,
Pitching in and helping out!*

Puppies Are Not Just For Christmas

Chorus *Puppies are not just for Christmas,
We'd like to make it quite clear!
Rabbits and cats, guinea pigs, even rats
Need love every day of the year.*

Verse 1 With cute twitchy noses
Adorable eyes,
A pet as a present
Is a lovely surprise.
But be warned, from the minute they're born
They leave little presents all over your lawn!
Yes, some might howl all through the night,
And one or two like to give postmen a bite, but....

Chorus Puppies are not just for Christmas.....

Verse 2 They'll jump up to greet you,
They'll sleep on your bed
They'll give you a paw when
They want to be fed.
But they grow so big, don't you know,
They leave little puddles all over your home.
Though they woof and chew all your stuff,
You can't walk away when the going gets tough, 'cause....

Chorus Puppies are not just for Christmas.....

Repeat Chorus

Repeat Need love every day of the year.

Lots Of Fa-La-La

Verse 1 It’s been a grotty day,
 There’s drizzle on the way,
 An icy wind has chilled us to the core.
 But still we’ve come out here
 To bring you Christmas cheer,
 Singing carols outside your front door.
 We’ve got lots of.....

Chorus *Fa la la la, fa la la la,
 Fa la la la, fa la la la,
 Fa la la la, fa la la la,
 Fa la la la la!*

Verse 2 We’ve sung ‘The First Noël’
 Which didn’t go so well,
 ’Cause it’s a song we haven’t really heard.
 And we will have to pass
 On ‘Good King Wenceslas’,
 We don’t understand a single word!
 So we’ll just sing

Chorus Fa la la la, fa la la la,

Verse 3 So when we shake our tin
 Please put some money in,
 And we will send it where it’s needed most.
 Then we will go next door
 And sing a little more,
 Like a neighbourhood heavenly host!
 We’ve got lots of.....

Chorus Fa la la la, fa la la la,

Repeat Chorus

Silent Night

Verse1 Silent night, holy night.
All is calm, all is bright
Round yon Virgin mother and child.
Holy infant so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Verse2 Silent night, holy night.
Shepherds quake at the sight.
Glories stream from heaven afar.
Heavenly hosts sing Alleluia,
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.

Verse 3 Silent night, holy night.
Son of God, love's pure light.
Radiant beams from Thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace.
Jesus Lord, at Thy birth,
Jesus Lord, at Thy birth.

Give A Little Time

Verse 1 A warm and happy Christmas time
Doesn't reach every home.
We're sorry to say on this special day
Many will spend it alone, so....

Chorus *Give a little time,
Give a little sunshine.
Give it to somebody who
Would love to spend a little time with you.*

Verse 2 As you sit with family and friends,
Feeling the joy they bring,
Someone somewhere is wishing that their
Phone or doorbell would ring, so....

Chorus Give a little time.....

Verse 3 Opening our Christmas presents
Is such a lot of fun,
But what would be the best Christmas treat
That you could give someone? Well....

Chorus Give a little time.....

Repeat Chorus

Blast Off!

Chorus *Quick march! Haven't got a second to spare!
Look sharp! Got to get him up in the air.
Jump to it! Chocks away!
It's blast off for Santa's sleigh!*

Verse 1 Ho! Ho! Ho! We said Ho! Ho! Ho!
We need to clear some snow, 'cause here we go!
Come on Reindeer, take the strain,
Christmas is back on again!
We said Ho! Ho! Ho! Here we go!

Chorus Quick march....

Verse 2 Hey! Hey! Hey! We said Hey! Hey! Hey!
It's nearly Christmas Day, so on your way!
There's a real long night ahead
For our hero dressed in red!
We said Hey! Hey! Hey! On your way!

Chorus Quick march....

Repeat Chorus
