

All The Ladies In My Life

Chorus To all the ladies in my life,
Whoever you may be:
My mum or my granny,
My sister or my aunty,
Or a friend of the family.
You mend the broken pieces
And iron out the creases,
When things don't go my way.
Your love is never-ending,
So with these words I'm sending
Love right back to you, this special day.

Verse Your open arms and your smiling face,
Are a blanket on my coldest days,
The strongest wind beneath my wings.
Just knowing you believe in me,
I'll be the best that I can be.

Chorus To all the ladies in my life,
Whoever you may be:
My mum or my granny,
My sister or my aunty,
Or a friend of the family.
You mend the broken pieces
And iron out the creases
When things don't go my way.
Your love is never-ending,
So with these words I'm sending
Love right back to you this special day.
All my love to you, this day.
